From Father Pieter

Greetings! This Sunday, Jesus tells us to "fear no one." Why should we fear? According to Jesus, Christians will face conflict and opposition from a world that is hostile the gospel. Indeed, Jesus tells his disciples that they will be hated and reviled! But despite that opposition, Jesus tells us to proclaim our faith "from the rooftops"! How can we have such courage and strength? We live our faith boldly because we are united with Christ! We face persecution because we are united with Christ, but we endure persecution joyfully because of that same union! At Mass this Sunday, receive the love of the Father through Jesus' Eucharistic Body and Blood, in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

What's Happening at St. Joseph?

Happy Father's Day! Pray for all of our fathers and fatherly figures, that God may help them live according to His example of truth and love.

Pancake Breakfast: Thanks to the Knights of Columbus who have organized a pancake breakfast this Sunday morning after Mass. Please join (it's free!— you may make a "free will" offering but come, even without an offering, and enjoy breakfast!).
